

KALEIDOSCOPE 2015

► KALEIDOSCOPE

ka·lei·do·scope | noun

a : a variegated changing pattern or scene

b : a succession of changing phases or actions

c : a diverse collection

THE HIGHLIGHT REEL

FEB

Jessi moved home to Boston, seeking God's direction and guidance.

APR

OMF Southeast Asia Conference in Chiang Mai, Thailand

JUN

Kaleidoscope continued to partner with OC International, Colorado Springs

AUG

Jessi moves to New York to establish Kaleidoscope's home base.

OCT

People International conference in Antalya, Turkey & major website update!

DEC

Applied for non-profit status & launched Kaleidoscope social media!

JAN

Jessi committed to pursuing Kaleidoscope full-time.

MAR

OC International Regional Retreat, Manila, Philippines.

MAY

Kimberly jumped on board as Kaleidoscope's resident graphic designer.

JUL

Established three year contract with OMF Asia.

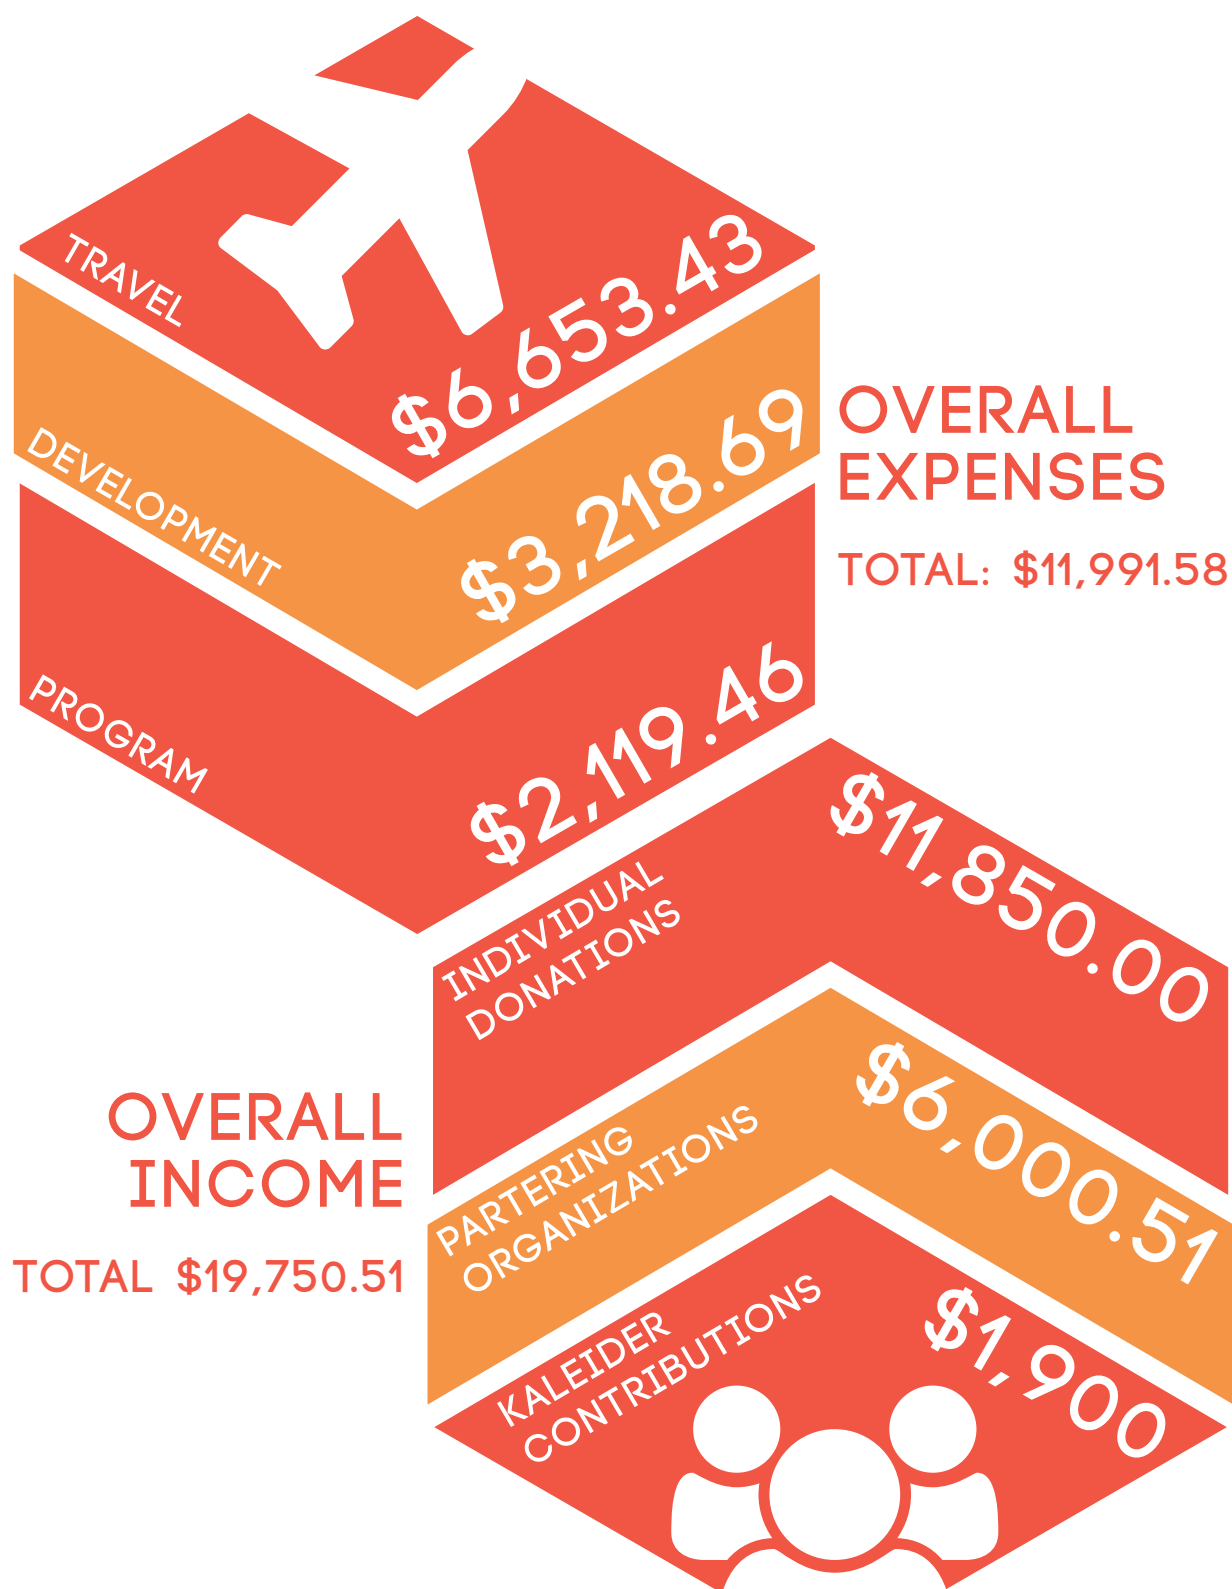

SEP

Grace joined Kaleidoscope as editor/right-hand woman

NOV

Worked our second annual International Conference of Missions, Virginia, U.S.A.

OVERALL INCOME AND EXPENSES

THE GROWTH SPURT

2014

32 participants & 4 Kaleiders

 = 5 Kaleiders

 = 10 Participants

2015

74 participants & 13 Kaleiders

2016

173 participants & 45 Kaleiders

MEET RYLEE

NAME: Rylee

AGE: 18

GREW UP IN: South Sudan

CURRENTLY LIVES IN: Kansas

LOVES: Photography and coffee

WHERE WE MET: Rylee joined us at Mosaik 2015, Kaleidoscope's event at the International Conference on Missions. She and Jessi bonded over a mutual love of coffee, and before their mugs were empty, Rylee had agreed to volunteer as a Kaleider. She is one of eight TCKs who have gone from being participants to Kaleidoscope volunteers in 2016. We are so excited to have her join us in Chiang Mai this April.

VALUES | VISION | STRATEGY

WHO: TCKS AGES 0-18.

WHAT: KALEIDOSCOPE EMPOWERS THIRD CULTURE KIDS TO CREATE SAFE SPACES, SHARE THEIR STORIES, AND PROCESS TRANSITION.

WHERE: HAVE PASSPORTS. WILL TRAVEL. YOU CAN FIND KALEIDOSCOPE TEAMS ACROSS THE U.S. & INTERNATIONALLY.

WHEN: KALEIDOSCOPE DOES NOT HOST INDEPENDENT EVENTS, HOWEVER WE ARE MORE THAN HAPPY TO CRASH ANY ORGANIZATION'S CONFERENCE OR RETREAT!

WHY: KALEIDOSCOPE STRIVES TO SEE THE GREAT COMMISSION REALIZED IN CONJUNCTION WITH –NOT AT THE EXPENSE OF– THE HEALTH AND SECURITY OF FAMILIES SERVING CROSS CULTURALLY.

"Kaleidoscope has been a dream of mine for so many years! It began as the babyest of ideas, conceived from dinner conversations with other third culture kids—sharing life, laughing, and sometimes crying together over stories lived and memories made. I wanted to see more of that. I wasn't sure how, but I loved the organic, raw, vulnerable friendships I was witnessing. Slowly but surely, that dream turned into a tangible reality where mentorship is built through shared experiences, and lessons are taught by stories told. Thank you for taking the time to hear a little bit more of my own favorite story. "

-Jessi Vance
Kaleidoscope
Founder & Director